Experience

Ms. Cella has been associated with PKF for almost 20 years, starting employment as an assistant accountant. She was elected a director on January 1, 2002.

Her areas of expertise are accounting and auditing for hospitality, real estate and general commercial clients.

She has trained, supervised and evaluated audit staff; prepared and reviewed financial statements, including consolidations, ascertaining compliance with generally accepted accounting principles or the income tax basis of accounting; and has reviewed and evaluated internal controls.

In addition to assisting clients with establishing job descriptions, Ms. Cella has also worked with ownership representatives of various hospitality properties in developing internal audit programs, assisting with their implementation and conducting internal audits. She has also provided accounting and consulting services to purchasers and sellers with respect to hotel and real estate sales, closing transactions and private placement offerings.

Ms. Cella is responsible for overseeing staffing, personnel and group benefits for the corporation, is Chairman of the PKF's Operating Committee and is an instructor in its in-house continuing professional education program.
